Mark Schwarzer OAM

"Australia is home to people from more than 200 different countries, many of whom are involved in sport. I believe every one of them has the right to enjoy their sport free from discrimination or harassment. It's unlawful in all Australian states and territories to harass or discriminate against people on the basis of their race, and it's got no place in sport. If a club or association is found to be liable for any kind of racism at a sporting event, the consequences can be serious.

If you're involved in sport, Play by the Rules has online information and resources on your rights and responsibilities. It's worthwhile becoming familiar with what you need to do to keep your sport fair and fun for everyone."

Westfield Matildas squad announced

Thursday, 18 August 2011

Westfield Matildas Head Coach Tom Sermanni today announced his 20-player squad who will depart next week for China to compete for a place at the 2012 London Olympic Games.

Returning to the squad are experienced pair Sarah Walsh and Thea Slatyer who have both battled back from injuries that kept them out of the FIFA Women's World Cup in Germany.

Aivi Luik also returns after narrowly missing out on a spot on the plane to Germany and comes in for injured Brisbane Roar teammate Lauren Colthorpe who has a knee issue.

Ellyse Perry, Leena Khamis and Casey Dumont also missed selection in the reduced 20-player squad.

"Again it has been a difficult decision in selecting the squad," said Sermanni.

"We have a large and talented squad and when you can only select 20 players for an 11 day, five match tournament you need to be very balanced in the selection process.

"The flexibility of the playing group given the number of games we have to play over a very short period is key.

"Both Thea and Walshy bring special qualities to the squad and now they are fully fit will give us the added bonus of their extensive experience and knowledge of playing big matches in Asia."

Australia's road to the Olympics begins next month in Jinan, China, in a gruelling six team, 11 day round robin tournament with the top two teams progressing to the 2012 London Olympic Games.

The Westfield Matildas play AFC Women's Asian Cup runners-up DPR Korea in their opening match on September 1 at the Jinan Olympic Sports Centre.
